ABSTRACT

This review would cater to students and scholars of various interdisciplinary streams, including those from tribal studies, development studies, sociology, economics and social work. The easily comprehensible language and clear graphical representation of data make the book engrossing and appealing to a greater audience base. The book's audience can also be policymakers, members of civil societies and other governmental organisations working for tribal welfare.

KEYWORDS: Social profile, Economic profile, Scheduled tribes, India.
